

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

TITLE	Transfer Articulation Agreements
-------	----------------------------------

POLICY STATEMENT

In the pursuit of relationship-building with other colleges, and to provide students with the opportunities for academic growth, Goodwin University will enter into articulation agreements with neighboring collegiate institutions that outline the terms and conditions for students with earned degrees to enter into advanced degree programs at Goodwin University.

Goodwin University seeks to strengthen its relationships with local institutions of higher-education and to provide students with opportunities for academic growth through the creation and implementation of articulation agreements. Articulation agreements allow students who hold degrees from select institutions to transition easily into related advanced-degree programs at Goodwin University. Through articulation agreements, collegiate institutions enter a mutually beneficial relationship whose primary aim is to promote the academic success of individual students.

PROCEDURE DETAILS

Students are required to submit official transcripts to the Registrar's Office. These transcripts are scanned and uploaded to students' records in Sonis. Transcripts are manually evaluated by the Registrar's Office and all credit meeting transfer parameters are entered onto students' records in Sonis. Concurrently, the Registrar's Office maintains equivalency records in both of transcript, graduation date (if any), degree awarded (if any) and the
